

SUPERCUPNI
SOMEONE TO TURN TO

POLICY STATEMENT

The Committee of SuperCupNI (SCNI) wish to ensure that all young people participating in the Tournament do so in an enjoyable and safe environment in which they have fun and feel valued.

SCNI aims to ensure that all young people participating in the tournament have information about the various sources of help and advice available.

Don't let anyone spoil the fun - SCNI is a well established tournament with high quality teams but we want to ensure it remains fun and safe for all the young people involved.

Speak out - If you have a concern or worry, you could speak to an adult you know and trust. If you feel there is no one you can talk to or contact you may find the following organisations helpful:

	ChildLine is the UK's free, confidential 24-hour helpline for children and young people in distress or danger. ChildLine is a service provided by the NSPCC. www.childline.org.uk
Northern Health and Social Care Trust.	This is the statutory agency responsible for child protection in the majority of the area SCNI will take place. It will have a Gateway team to deal with reports of abuse and also more local contacts for ongoing professional liaison for advice on concerns. Tel: 03001234333 Out of hours 028 9446 8833
	Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) Centre www.ceop.gov.uk Works across the UK to tackle child sex abuse wherever and whenever it happens. They provide advice for parents and carers, delivering a virtual police station for any young person to report abuse on the internet.
	Internet safety for young people www.thinkuknow.co.uk Young people should be allowed to enjoy the benefits of the internet without the fear of child sex offenders. ThinkuKnow is the CEOP Centre's dedicated education programme providing online safety advice.
Police Service of Northern Ireland	The Police Service of Northern Ireland's purpose is to make Northern Ireland safer for everyone through professional, progressive policing. In emergencies please phone 999 for all other enquires please dial 028 90650222 and ask for your local police station.
	The Child Protection in Sport Unit Mission is: To safeguard children and young people in and through sport and lead the way in keeping children safe from harm. Tel: 028 90351135 www.thecpsu.org.uk
